Gotcha!

Having dodged the wretched Covid-19 virus for the past two and a half years, Saturday last produced the dreaded two red lines on the antigen test strip. Beyond what began as a bout of Laryngitis and a woozy head, I developed a chronic tiredness which meant that even a few minutes in the armchair guaranteed nodding off.

Thankfully the symptoms are almost gone and normality has just about returned. The double red line, which appeared on only one occasion, has disappeared. The few days enforced isolation just happened to coincide with the best days of the year so far, but that Murphy's Law in action I suppose. At least in my case Covid came calling at a time when I had all available vaccinations and boosters, I had every chance of resistance available. Some people were not so fortunate, and my few days of isolation brought many of those people to mind; I used some of the time to remember and to pray for them, and for those who still sorely miss them. So many went from us so quickly and so quietly. R.I.P.

Time on my hands also gave me an opportunity to call the people of Ukraine to mind. While the media coverage has declined, the daily onslaught of the Russians continues and the terror that fear instils must be an awful reality to bear. The uncertainty of a life where at any moment a missile can shatter everything, is too horrible to contemplate. The danger is that we become inured to the sight of bombed out apartment blocks on our screens and they merge with the background that TV has become in our homes while we hardly notice.

Tuesday night next is an opportunity to help in a practical way. Come along and join in for a good cause.

Overview of Employment Rights Enforcement

If you are not getting your rights or entitlements, or if you lose your job and consider your dismissal was unfair, you can make a formal complaint – see 'How to make a complaint' below. Before making a formal complaint, you should try to resolve the dispute with your employer directly.

The main organisations that enforce employment rights are the Workplace Relations Commission (WRC) and the Labour Court.

Workplace Relations Commission

The Workplace Relations Commission (WRC) promotes the improvement of workplace relations. It hears disputes and complaints about employment laws, and helps to resolve disputes by providing a range of services to employers, employees and trade unions.

WRC services include:

Inspection of employment rights compliance

The provision of information

Mediation

Conciliation

Advisory and adjudication services.

The WRC deals with disputes about equality and discrimination. It has published the Guide to Employment, Labour and Equality Law (pdf).

The Labour Court

The Labour Court can investigate industrial disputes in certain circumstances. It also deals with all workplace relations appeals, so you can appeal to the Labour Court about a decision made by an adjudicator in the WRC.

Before the Workplace Relations Act 2015 came into effect on 1 October 2015 the Employment Appeals Tribunal dealt with workplace relations appeals. It continues to hear appeals submitted before the 1 October 2015.

Compensation payments and tax

If you are awarded a compensation payment as a result of an employment rights claim, in certain cases, the payment may be exempt from income tax under Section 7 of the Finance Act 2004. The exemption applies to payments arising out of recommendations or decisions by a relevant authority following a formal hearing or mediation.

You can read more details about this in Revenue's leaflet Exemption from Income Tax – IT 71(pdf).

How to make a complaint

If you have a complaint about your employment rights, you should first speak to your employer. If you cannot resolve your complaint informally, you can make a formal complaint to the Workplace Relations Commission (WRC) using its online complaint form.

You should make your complaint to the WRC within 6 months of the alleged incident (dispute). This time limit can be extended by a further 6 months if there was a reasonable cause for the delay.

Your complaint should be about one of your employment rights under the relevant employment law. For example, your annual leave entitlement is set out under the Organisation of Working Time Act 1997.

Read more about how to make a complaint to the WRC, including which supporting documents you need, and what to expect from mediation or the hearing.

You can also read this list of frequently asked questions about making a complaint. Or, you can contact the Workplace Relations Commission's Information and Customer Service.

Lucan Planning Council

We wish to thank those from AGP and neighbours who attended the public meeting last Saturday (July 9th). In particular we thank those who contributed to the meeting, made suggestions, and those who have volunteered for further action.

Subsequent to the meeting we received a reply from the NTA requesting details of our proposed solutions to the gap in service as a result of the rerouting of the former 239 and the disappearance of the 25 bus route entirely. We have responded outlining both the problems and their solutions. We will keep you informed as to what emerges.

National Tidy
Towns
Adjudication Time for Lucan

Flowerbeds are blooming, bollards painted, hand-weeding ongoing (sore knees to prove it!), raised beds created and planted, watering - constant, litter picking - as ever..... The work continues to ensure that Lucan looks well. Our team members are out regularly, throughout the week carrying out the various tasks as they see fit. The 'cigire' may or may not have visited at this stage. A bit disappointing to see that just a small number of businesses have made the effort to adorn their premises with floral displays this year.

PLEASE
let's all really work together to showcase Lucan at its best.

Happy Birthday to my loving wife Mary

LUCAN FESTIVAL

Freemans Journal 16th May 1885

FUNERAL OF THE LATE COLONEL VESEY. D.I.

Yesterday the remains of the late Charles Colthurst Vesey, D.I., J.P. Colonel, Commanding the 5th Battalion Royal Dublin Fusiliers, were interred in the family mortuary chapel within the demesne of Lucan House, Lucan. The Kildare and Lucan tenantry of deceased attended and assisted by the labourers on the estate, bore the remains of their deceased landlord from his late residence. A guard of honour composed of seventeen sergeants of the Royal Dublin Fusiliers under the command of Captain Mansell, took part in bearing the remains to the grave. The remains were encased in a rich brown oak sarcophagus with brass fittings and breastplate, the latter bearing the following inscription:-

Colonel Charles Colthurst Vesey
Born 18th June 1826
Died 11th May 1885

The burial service was conducted by the Rev C W Benson, Incumbent of Lucan. The following were the chief mourners EC Vesey (son), Colonel Colthurst, M.P.(brother), Sir George Colthurst Bart (nephew), Colonel GW Fraser and HC Warren.

The following noblemen and gentlemen attended- The Duke of Leinster, Lord Annally, HL Barton, General Brooke, Arthur Hamilton, Charles Hamilton, Alex Kirkpatrick of Coolmine, Wm Moran, John and James Wills, John A Walker. Colonel Vernon, Quartermaster Lowery etc, etc. The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Messrs Arthur Jones and Son, 135 Stephen's Green.

The funeral of Colonel Charles Colthurst Vesey was a well-organized event. Oddly there is no mention of his widow Anne who is laid to rest in the same spot, but she outlived him by 27 years.

You can see all of the above on Saturday 10th September when by permission of the newly arrived Italian Ambassador Mr Ruggero Corrias and his wife Ms Vania Loreno.

Unfortunately you won't gain entry with an old 6p but a contribution of €6 per adult will be required (Children 12 and under free).

Phew!

Over 27 Celsius on Monday last, and lots more where that came from by the look of things.

Great to see so many households thoughtful of our four legged friends by placing bowls of water along the way – nice one!

Autumn not far away!

Seems so strange to see the Autumn tones appear on the Chestnut Trees already, despite Summer just beginning in our eyes.

Griffen Wetlands

We wondered what all the groundwork was about at Griffen Valley Park, and can tell you that a new wetland is being constructed. Planting is scheduled for the beginning of August, and is expected to be complete by the end of August. The jury is out on this, but it looks like it has passed out our swimming pool.....

Dubs Camogie Girls still in with a chance while all the other Blues are unfortunately gone out of this year's Championship. Good luck to them!

When Posters become Eyesores!

We spotted this poster from a meeting on 9th June, recklessly pasted on our last surviving village pump, and left there long after the date.

While people are to be commended for trying to do something about our national problems, a little sensitivity and respect towards local communities might be exercised.

There are laws regarding how and when such posters may be placed, but alas they don't appear to be acted on. Nevertheless the onus is on everybody to act responsible!

Céad Míle Fáilte!

Welcome to Italy's new Ambassador to Ireland, His Excellency Ruggero Corrias, all the way from Sardinia.

The new Ambassador presented his credentials to President Michael D. Higgins, at Áras an Uachtaráin, just over a week ago.

We look forward to meeting him during our upcoming Lucan Festival.

Lego at 90!

In 1932, the first Lego brick appeared! It must have been the best part of another 30 years before it reached Ireland. Birdie has a distant memory of finding a red Lego brick on the footpath in Lucan, and not knowing what it was, until the following Christmas when Santa brought a set – all red and white bricks – no window, doors, wheels, nor any of the wonderful creations in today's sets. But what a toy!!!

Deep summer is when laziness finds respectability.

Hillcrest Residents Association

When last Sunday's 50th Anniversary celebration was being planned, a dry, mild day was as much as we could possibly hope for but, from sunrise to sunset, the weather turned out to be glorious. Under a cloudless sky, hundreds of our friends and neighbours arrived to take their places, many of them under the welcome shade of nearby trees. Despite Wimbledon Finals, an All Ireland Semi-Final and Formula 1, most stayed until the very end, welcoming the long overdue opportunity to catch up, to reminisce about old times and to look forward to similar future gatherings.

Mass was celebrated by Fr. Pius, with beautiful singing by the St. Patrick's Parish Choir and Eva Norton, under the musical direction of Ian Brabazon. The attendance was then addressed by SDCC Deputy Mayor, Joanna Tuffy, before a very entertaining performance by Lucan Concert Band and a closing statement by our Chairperson.

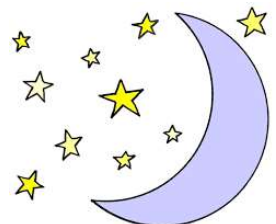

We want to thank everyone who attended and enjoyed this special occasion, all residents who decorated their homes, our local Gardaí for patrolling the estate for the duration of Sunday's event and those who enabled us to transform our plans into a memorable reality: Fr. Pius, Ian Brabazon, support staff at St. Patrick's Church, the Ward and McBride families and fellow Committee members, in particular our Chairperson, Maria Murphy.

Lucan Land Loophole 1977

(From RTE Archives)

Opposition in Lucan County Dublin to plans for a housing development on land currently used as a stud farm.

The village of Lucan is becoming the centre of fast growing suburban Dublin. It is growing too fast for the residents of Hillcrest Estate in Dodsboro, just outside Lucan. Their 750 house estate could be extended by a further 800 houses on land currently occupied by a stud farm.

The Hillcrest Residents' Association totally reject the development plan by Stein Investment. Tony Kelly chairman of the association is clear the Hillcrest residents are not anti-development. They want to see houses built where there is adequate infrastructure and facilities to accommodate an influx of people.

The residents do not believe Stein Investment is operating in a transparent fashion. Their development proposal has already been rejected by Dublin County Council on two occasions and is now under the planning appeals board.

The residents of Hillcrest Estate lack amenities. The shopping centre in the area is under construction. The Cottage Stores is the only shop serving the area. The national school is a temporary prefabricated building and also serves as the local church. The Hillcrest Residents' Association members cannot imagine the strain an increased population would put on the area.

Local Senator and Councillor Brian Lenihan and Teachtaí Dála (TD) Mark Clinton support the Hillcrest Residents' Association opposition to the Stein Investment development.

The Hillcrest Residents' Association wish to meet with Stein Investment but are having difficulties finding out who they are.

Nobody is willing to say that they have any connection with the company.

It transpires the principal director of Stein Investment is Captain Tim Rodgers owner of Airlie Stud Farm. He wishes to clear up any confusion about the company.

It is my company it belongs to me; I suppose you could say I'm Stein Investment.

He is happy to meet with members of the Hillcrest Residents' Association whenever they wish.

Captain Tim Rodgers' stud farm is zoned for agriculture. At the appeals board he will argue it is used for something else. If he is successful, planning permission will see the land price rise to £20,000 to £30,000 per acre.

Lecturer of Law in Trinity College Yvonne Scannell thinks it is important that people know who they are dealing with, especially at the planning appeals stage. She also believes it is in the developer's interest to have the cooperation of local people.

Planning is a democratic process and the more cooperation the better.

New Street Art Project Request – Adamstown: At the June local area committee, a motion I tabled on behalf of residents in Adamstown to explore the feasibility of a street art / mural project was agreed. The possible location for this will be the Adamstown Link Road Bridge that has become the site of continuous unwanted graffiti. Such a project as suggested to me by one Castlegate resident, could serve to promote the multicultural community here in a positive and colourful way. The arts office will liaise with the relevant department and if successful, will support the initiative in collaboration with the residents in Adamstown.

Necessary Tree Pruning – Rear of Arthur Griffith Park: SDCC in conjunction with ESB will be carrying out specific targeted tree pruning in Griffeen Valley Park and bordering with some homes, where growth has become problematic or dangerous to overhead wires.

Progress on Griffeen Community College: The construction of the new Griffeen Community College post primary school had been delayed due to land ownership issues. On Monday Councillors agreed to a land swap with the landowner, and to sell the site to the Department of Education. This means that construction on the new school can start very shortly which is welcome.

Social and Affordable Housing at Kishogue: A new housing development of 266 social and affordable homes near Kishogue train station has been approved. This is the largest development of public housing on council land for many years. We desperately need more social and affordable housing and I'm hoping that more of these proposals will come forward over the coming period. It's now imperative that the NTA and Irish Rail open the Kishogue train station as soon as possible.

Scoil Áine & St. Thomas: Scoil Áine and St. Thomas have been included in the Accelerated Delivery of Architectural Planning and Tendering scheme. This means delivery of two new 24 classroom schools with three Special Education Needs classrooms will be sped up. I brought the previous Minister for Education out to schools and secured commitment to ensuring that the new builds were escalated, I am really pleased to see this happening as I know how badly needed this investment is.

Confidence in Government: This week I was the only one of our four elected TDs to express confidence in the Government. I believe we need a strong, stable Government with capable Ministers to lead us through the challenges that lie ahead: health, housing, cost of living and climate change.

Palmerstown Camera Club

As summer has finally reached us at Palmerstown Camera Club we are running photography outings to places like Bective Abbey, Glendalough and Skerries to mention just a few.

At Lucan Library there is a scaled-down version of the photography exhibition which we held back in June in Palmerstown. We are also running a win a print competition at the library.

At the exhibition we had some amazing images from our photographers, Michael Moore had this image in the exhibition titled “My Thinking Space”.

People interested in joining the club or even attending one or two meetings FREE of charge to see how their photography could benefit from being a member can do so by contacting secpcc@mail.com

Na Gaeil Óga CLG

Fáilte chuig an Nuachtlitir is déanaí ó Na Gaeil Óga, áit a bhfaighidh tú an t-eolas is déanaí faoi gach rud atá ag tarlú inár bpobal bríomhar.

Foireann Iomána

Na Gaeil Óga 4-15, Sairseálaigh Leamhcáin 3-8 Bhí lá stairiúil ag an gclub Dé Domhnaigh nuair a bhuaigh an fhoireann A iomána cluiche ceannais na sraithe agus chun ardú céime go dtí Roinn 6 a bhaint amach do 2023. Seo an 4ú ardú céime atá bainte amach ag an ngrúpa le 6 bliana anuas, agus is léiriú iontach é ar an obair mhór atá ar siúl chun an iomáint a fhorbairt sa chlub.

Cé gur tosaigh Leamhcán go maith sa chéad 10 noiméad, choinnigh Eoghan Mac Liam sa chluiche muid le cúpla scór breá. Thosaigh Na Gaeil Óga ag dul i gceannas ar fud na páirce ansin, agus bhí Michael Twomey agus Aidan Whelan an-cheannúil agus iad ag cosaint. Thainig an scór cinniúnach thart ar 20 noiméad isteach sa chluiche nuair a bhailligh Cónán Glas briseadh ó Michéal Ó Conáire agus neadaigh sé isteach san eangach é chun beagánín de bhearna a chur idir na foirne. Thainig dhá chúl eile go tapa ina dhiaidh sin, ceann ó Niall McQuillan agus ceann eile ó Eoghan Mac Liam. Bhí Na Gaeil Óga 3-8 go 0-7 chun tosaigh ag leath-ama.

Sa dara leath, le Brian Moran agus Tadhg Mac Liam go mór in uachtar i lár na páirce, choinnigh Na Gaeil Óga leis an deá-imirt agus bhí siad 4-14 go 1-8 chun tosaigh le cúpla noiméad fagtha, le cúl eile ó Niall McQuillan. Fuair Leamhcán dhá chúl ag an nóiméad deireanach chun an bearna a laghdú, ach bhí an t-am ag an bhfeor ionad Adam Ó Faoláin, atá ag saothrú go dícheallach leis an gclub le bréis is 10 mbliain, chun scór a aimsiú nuair a chuir sé ceann thar an trasnán ó bréis is 90 slat.

Is fiú aitheantas a thabhairt do lucht tacaíochta an chumainn; bhí sé iontach an méid sin imreoirí faoi-aois a fheiceáil amuigh ag an gcluiche. Tá síúl againn gur thug an lá blaiseadh beag dóibh dá bhfuil i ndán dóibh agus geansaí Na Gaeil Óga orthu amach anseo!

LUCAN HARRIERS A.C.

Lucan on Top of the World

Report from an incredible Week at the World Masters (O35) Track and Field championship in Tampere, Finland

Firstly, a huge congratulations to Leanne and Carol on their world achievements. Fantastic results, everyone in Lucan Harriers is very proud of you.

On Friday morning Carol Kearney woke up on Cloud 9 as she prepared for a World Final. This is definitely worth repeating, a WORLD FINAL in the 400m. She had already conquered Europe earlier in the season and we were all waiting eagerly to see how Carol would get on in her biggest test yet. She ran the race of her life, unfortunately on this occasion it wasn't to be. Carol being Carol was very philosophical about it, she is now focused on the relays on Saturday. Both herself, and fellow Harrier Leanne Wellings were picked to compete in the Green Vest. Carol was in the W55 4 X100m team with Moira, Edel and Geraldine, well this time they did it, and did it on the world stage. They gave absolutely everything in their pursuit of glory, it was not to be in vain as they took gold medal and the World Title in the process.

4x100m team Edel Maguire Clonliffe, Leanna Wellings and Carol Kearney Lucan Harriers, missing Moira Groome Trim AC

The following excerpt is directly from Leanne:
“World Masters Champs, it’s been some experience...2 season bests and semi-finalists in the individuals, 9th in the world in the 100m, which I was delighted with, 4 x100m relay that didn’t quite go to plan, but Sunday capped off with a bronze medal in the world masters championships in the W45 4 x 400m relay with my Lucan Harriers teammate Carol alongside. The pain in the last 50m was unreal but was delighted to bring it home on the last leg and make this trip an unforgettable experience. Finland and Tampere you have been incredible such a beautiful place with laughs, memories, and amazing friendship between all the competitors from across the world. Many people to thank for their support, friendship, and memories. Karen Burles PT, Carol Kearney Kathryn McDevitt and my Irish team mates today, Moira, Carol and Edel you were simply the best today. My club in Ireland Lucan Harriers AC and my club in England Wycombe Phoenix Harriers. That’s a medal at the last 3 championships...Masters Athletics you never disappoint.

National 10-mile Championship Phoenix Park

It really was a very busy weekend for the club. At a hot Phoenix Park, on Sunday morning, there was a great turn out from the club, for the Irish Runner 10-mile, National championship, with some very impressive times. Well done everyone on a tough hilly course, the norm for the Phoenix Park runs Congratulations to our National medallists Anne Whelan 3rd in Category, Mary Browne 3rd in hers, Josie Dignam 2nd in hers and Eileen O’ Brien 1st in hers. National medals are always nice.

Further congratulations to Anne Whelan, Claire Joyce and Edith Coakley who got bronze National team medal.

Add Emmet Quinn to this list in a PB of 1.16.53. Emmet after been injured earlier in the year has come back very strongly.

Condolence

The committee and members wish to extend their sincere sympathies to John, Paul and David Forde on the death of their Father John Forde (R.I.P.) Our thoughts are with the family at this very sad time. May John Rest in Peace

John Forde (RIP)

This being Captains' Prize weekend in our Club, traditionally a weekend of celebration and joy we must take time out to mourn the passing of our honorary member and one of Lucan's most outstanding club members. John Forde left this world on Thursday last the 7th July and though his health had been in decline for some considerable time his passing brings home to us all at Lucan Pitch and Putt Club the temporary nature of this life.

Nigh on 50 years a member of Lucan - John worked tirelessly on committees for many decades with advice and encouragement and a commitment to steer our Club in a positive direction into the 21st century. Never one to court stardom or recognition – John was a formidable architect of the skills of Pitch and Putt and his input into the growth of Pitch and Putt at the 12th Lock can never be overstated but has always been appreciated by those who knew him or worked with him.

John was Captain of our Club in 1981 and President during the 90's - arguably the strongest decades of Pitch and Putt both nationally and locally and in those figurehead positions of our Club, John continually advanced the strengths and achievements of Lucan players in the company of visiting dignitaries or those in authority at the National Level of the sport.

When circumstances did not allow John to engage himself at committee level, John gave many years to the beautifying of our course in the plantation and upkeep of flowers and plants.

For Lucan Pitch and Putt Club, John's passing means that the chain to its early days is another link weaker, but the reasons to recall our past is ever stronger.

To John's sons John, Paul and David we extend our deepest sympathy and regret.

National Juvenile Championship in Tullamore

The good news just kept on coming for Lucan Harriers. At the National Juveniles Championships in Tullamore on Saturday one of our starlets Kate O'Connell won a brilliant gold in the U19 400m in a blistering Championship record of 54.83 secs. This time is also a inside the B standard for the World U20 Championships which are taking place in August in Cali, Colombia.

Also at the National Championships, Davis Quinn took bronze in the U15 boys 2000m walk, Eve Noctor 3rd in U18 400m, Benjamin Caulier 2nd in the U18 1500m. The previously mentioned Kate, also won gold in the 200m and silver in the 100m. A very successful Championship for this young lady and a bright future lies ahead.

St. Mary's Camera Soirée

The technical difficulties encountered by Michael G last week that prevented him sharing some photos taken at the National Floral Festival organised by the Association of Irish Floral Artists in three of the churches in Naas under the title "Another Time, Another Place" have been overcome. I am sure that you agree that the arrangements are stunning. AOIFA was founded in 1973 and aims to bring together floral art and gardening clubs for artistic development for artistic development, cultural and educational purposes. The Association has over 80 members throughout the country.

Anna was back in Mayo and on Sunday submitted photos to prove that summer had arrived in Achill. Josie was in Malahide castle and garden. She submitted photographs of butterflies in the butterfly house there and this caused Conor to go into competition with her and submit his own photos of butterflies.

Parts of Malahide castle predate Tintern Abbey. The oldest parts of the castle date back to the 12th century. The estate began in 1185, when Richard Talbot, a knight who accompanied Henry II to Ireland in 1174, was granted the "lands and harbour of Malahide." Between 1185 and the 1970s, the Talbot tenure at Malahide Castle was broken for only a brief interlude between 1649 and 1660 when their lands were seized by Cromwellian soldiers and the castle was occupied by Myles Corbet, Lord Chief Baron of Ireland. The castle was sold to the State in 1975.

By way of a footnote, it emerges that a relation of one of the members of the Camera Soiree has a close connection with the former owners of Tintern Abbey. It's a small world!

Stay safe until next week!
